

Job Title: Filmmaking Counselor

Reports To: Technology Director

Brief Description: The main responsibility of all staff is the campers' safety and wellbeing -- all day, every day. TIC staff members enjoy creative independence, a stimulating and spirited atmosphere, and the camaraderie of brilliant and energetic peers. TIC Summer Camp is committed to a personal approach in all its activities. The staff makes sure that campers are given real choices, guidance in making those choices, and lots of personal attention. The job description below lists the minimum essentials. Staff members are sometimes asked to do tasks not explicitly stated here. It is expected that all staff will do whatever needs to be done for the good of the camp.

General Requirements:

- Energy, creativity, and patience. A love of learning and zest for life.
- A real interest in children and the desire to teach.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills.
- Friendly, tactful, diplomatic and proven customer service skills.
- Experience in teaching/coaching is a plus.
- Ability and desire to work in a stimulating, fulfilling, and sometimes silly environment while maintaining good judgment and safety.
- Availability for the entire summer, including staff training. Dates for the MD & VA sites are June 18 through August 17, 2012; DC dates are June 11 through August 10, 2012.

Acceptance of a TIC contract is a primary commitment; a second job is allowed only when it is not detrimental to job performance at TIC. TIC runs day camps in the DC area with no resident facilities; out-of-towners must find their own housing.

Job Related Requirements:

- Collaborative skills to work with fellow counselors and to model these to campers.
- Ability to work with a small group of campers of varying ages, teaching them the entire filmmaking process to produce a live-action video at the end of each session.
- Expertise in film production (e.g. majoring in film studies; experience with camcorders and digital editors).
- Competence with Final Cut Pro.
- Multiple or cross discipline skills are a plus.

Supervisory Responsibilities: Junior (elementary age) and Senior (secondary age) campers.

Specific Job Duties:

- Responsible for two groups of campers each day, acting as their teacher, friend, advocate; helping them to work as a team and develop socially.
- Teaches the film process: brainstorming ideas, writing scripts, shooting with handheld camcorders, sound production, and editing with Final Cut Pro.
- Helps design instruction and implements the curriculum, ensuring the TIC philosophy and spirit are maintained.
- Outputs final project to appropriate medium (uploads to website and/or DVD/CD) at the end of each session for each camper to take home.
